

CALLBOARD

November, 2006

Greetings from the Co-Presidents,

Our first show of the season, “Dracula,” was largely a financial success. The show was very positively received by audiences, and it also earned an excellent review from The Patriot Ledger. Financially, the show broke even, with good crowds at our Cabaret nights. A rather paltry gathering at the matinee kept the show from turning a modest profit. Nonetheless we are very pleased with how the show went, and would like to thank director, Ted Eaton, Production Manager, Cathy Larson (a terrific job!), and the entire cast and crew for their hard work, dedication, and talents which really made “Dracula”....count (sorry!). Wishing you and yours a healthy and Happy Holiday season!

The PC Police Have Invaded Scotland Yard

We have been informed by the Agatha Christie estate that the mystery previously known as “Ten Little Indians” shall now be entitled “And Then There Were None”. So please don’t be confused, we have not changed our spring production. The new title now appears on all promotional materials, tickets, etc. as required. Don’t ask.
